

CORE CONCEPTS IN TELEHEALTH eLEARNING COURSE:

About this course package:

This course provides a comprehensive introduction to the clinical applications in telehealth CORE - Clinical, Operational, Regulatory, and Ethics - principles. It also explores the rapid expansion and adaptability of telehealth across technologies, specialties, and care settings. With a focus on patient-centered implementation, learners will gain essential knowledge to support the effective delivery of telehealth services.

Who should take the course?

Health care clinicians and professionals who are either new to telehealth or looking to strengthen their foundational understanding.

- Physicians
- Allied Health Professionals
- Telehealth Coordinators
- Physician Assistants
- Medical Assistants
- Health IT
- Nurse Practitioners
- Administrators
- Clinic Managers
- Nurses
- Researchers
- Students

Does this course offer CE credit?

Learners can earn up to 5.25 continuing education credits with the full course package.

- Physicians (AMA) - 5.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™
- Physician Assistants (AAPA) - 5.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™
- Nurse Practitioners (AANP) - AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™
- Nurses (ANCC) - 5.25 contact hours

How to purchase?

Visit the American Heart Association Professional Education Hub™ - a digital learning and continuing education (CE) platform for health care professionals from a trusted name. Access anytime and from anywhere – education.heart.org

What does it cost?

This course includes the following modules, available as a complete package:

Course Title	Price
Introduction to Telehealth
Technology
Telepresence Skills
Legal, Regulatory & Quality
Licensing, Credentialing & Privileging
Reimbursement
Ethical Considerations
Complete Course Package (5.25 CE)	$149.00

Our programs are built for professionals who want practical, immediately applicable skills they can put to work right away.

Please direct your sales inquiries to education.sales@email.education.heart.org